AUGUST NEWS

FLYING KITES OVER HAMPSTEAD HEATH

We walked up to the top of Parliament Hill and had a lovely picnic whilst looking at the incredible view of London. The weather was on our side as the kites flew high up in the air. We finished our day wandering the wild flower meadows with huge nets to study the insect life. What a Great Day! Thank you to Heath Hands.

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2025

TUESDAYS From 2.30 pm to 4.30 pm at the Euston Community Hub with guest readers, books to give away and the chance to register in the challenge and join Camden Libraries. Our focus is usually on the Under 5s but on Tuesday 26th August with Rosemary Clunie it will be on those 6 years plus.
